- He is and always will be one of the best teachers that AUW has ever offered. I have learned a lot over the last two years taking his courses consecutively.

- I have enjoyed the class very much due to how organized Professor was throughout the semester. The Professor has always explained all the topics clearly and encouraged us to ask questions. However, I struggled to understand some topics as I did not have a background in International Relations. So, I think taking an IR course should be a requirement before taking this course.
