

Salton, Herman

LCSA1116

A History of International Relations in 30 Objects

Asian University for Women

04-11-2015 -05-08-2015

Local Code: 1

Comments: Use the space provided in the text area below for your comments.

- this is a wonderful course. and instructor is really good
- This course was very interesting and Professor did a great job. Thank you
- Professor Salton is an excellent instructor. He made this course much more enjoyable and I learned a lot from him.
- I really enjoyed his class. He gives the feedback on timing.
- the instructor helped to understand course materials very clearly and concisely. It helped me to gain a broader understanding on the history of different empires and countries and how those shaped those countries international relations.
- He is one of the best Professors in AUW!
- He is very motivational, hardworking, organized, punctual and encouraging professor.
- I wish I could take more courses of him. His courses going to help me a lot in both professional and personal life.
- Thanks for your effort and teaching!
- he is organized, hard working and transparent with his class lectures and gradings, keeps no place for confusion unlike many other professors who are not very organized and clear with their grading system. Many of the professors just give the total grade at the end of the semester where we don't have any idea of what percentage we got in which work for, but he gives particulate grades for every class works.
- The instructor is the best organized teacher I have ever met. He is very smart and find ways to understand students ideas. I like his feedback that strength my effort for next assignment. He has very clear voice and interesting lecture. The way he starts class is very interesting.
- This course was fairly interesting. I learned a lot about different objects and their history. Both good sides and bad sides and also looked at them critically. What I was confusd throughout the course was, how I could do better in my public speaking and get a better grade like my peers. Thank you Professor. It was a good course.
- Great and Excellent job by our professor. He is vary well organized with a kind and great behavior. I want to take his course again.
- The course was really an amazing course. I gained a lot of knowledge in history and international relations. The prpessor teaches in a very balanced way that neighter gives pressure nor less amount of studies. Everything is balanced. And, the professor explains every matter very clearly and also accepts criticism.
- The course was very effective as well as the instructor

Comments: Use the space provided in the text area below for your comments.

- Great Job, Professor! Thank you for your excellent course. This course is one of my favorite courses at AUW. Your extensive knowledge, enthusiasm and organization made the class a pleasure to attend and study for. Also, every lecture that you gave to me blew my mind. I really appreciate it. Good luck for your book, and have a safe journey!
- He focused mainly in learning the course materials rather than pressurizing with unexpected grades in exams. That's a very good thing.
- I have loved the course and course readings. The professor always encourages students and gives good grades according to the level of writings.