

ICU Diplomatic and International Public Service Program Commemorative Event

Venue: ICU Dialogue House 4th floor International Conference Room

Date: Saturday, April 18, 2020

Open to: ICU Graduate and Undergraduate, ICU High School students and faculty

Morning Session (In Japanese)

10:00-10:10 Opening Remarks: ICU Graduate School Dean

10:10-11:10 Diplomatic Panel: “Aspiring to Become a Diplomat from ICU”

Moderator: Former UN Ambassador & Distinguished Professor Motohide Yoshikawa

Panelists :

Mr. Makoto Honda (ICU graduate), Director, Policy Evaluation and Administrative Review Division, Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA)

Ms. Arisa Kitamura (ICU graduate) International Cooperation Bureau, MOFA

Ms. Marina Shintaku (ICU graduate), European Affairs Bureau, MOFA

Q&A

11:10-12:00 Reporting by students who participated in the ICU's first UN Seminar – Part 1: Observations on UN Multilateral Diplomacy

Afternoon session(English-Japanese simultaneous interpretation available)

13:00-14:30 Keynote Speaker: Former UN Under-Secretary-General Mr. Yasushi Akashi

Theme: “My Life at the United Nations” Q&A

14:45-15:45 Panel on UN Professionals: “What it means to work for an UN International Organization”

Moderator: Diplomatic and International Public Service Program Advisor/

Adjunct Professor/former UN official Hiroko Morita

Panelists from Tokyo offices of:

UNHCR Mr. Junichiro Kosaka (ICU graduate)

UNDP Ms. Chika Kondoh

UNICEF Ms. Yu Sasaki (ICU graduate)

ILO Mr. Ryusuke Tanaka

Q&A

15:45-16:15 Reporting by students who participated in the ICU’s first UN Seminar – Part 2 : “What have we learned?”

16:15-16:25 Closing Remarks: “Looking back the past year” by Herman Salton

Associate Professor /Diplomatic and International Public Service Program Committee Chair

Yu Sasaki