Has the instructor been effective? I would say incredibly, since literally changed the history learning method which initially was feeding information rather than encouraging personal curiosity to explore.

How can the instructor improve this course? I honestly feel this course is already well improved and does not need any more.

How does this instructor compares with your other instructors? The other professors gave me a feeling as if I am a psycho learning nothing and unable to learn.

Is there anything peculiar/special about this instructor (negative or positive)?
Although there are alot things special about the professor,
I would mention the ones that really made me feel I am at a university not a kindergarten. He takes his class serious but not strict, he inspire students motives rather than forcing them to learn, and I am not feeling dumb anymore which other professor gave me.

How does this instructor compare with your other instructors?

To be honest, I don't know how to really express that, but, I feel like in instructors don't stress out students but rather teach them very much about the topic and I have experience I have seen so many instructors put so much pressure on students in a bad way. I mean it's not some how they encourage students just to get A but not really learn something from the course.
